EXAMPLES:

Representing Kaufman County is Kelvin Word of the Ruminants Unlimited 4-H Club. Seven years ago, he began his 4-H career with a lamb project and continues that project today. Over the years, Kelvin has added the beef, photography, and horse projects and says he's learned hard work, diligence, and respect. Kelvin serves as a District IV 4-H Council Officer and was awarded the 4-H Gold Star Award this past year. He plans to study Agronomy this upcoming fall at either Sam Houston State University or Texas A&M University, with hopes of becoming a researcher. Kelvin attends Scurry-Rosser High School and is the son of Michael and Renee Word.
